“ Evita, Big Billy, Lynette and all of the family and friends. Evita I know that you feel cheated, lost and no where to turn. My heart is very heavy for you, as I have walked this path 10 years ago..Keep faith that Billy is no longer in pain, he fought a hard battle and fought with bravery. Let the Lord hold each of you in his arms, wrap you with the Peace and Love that only he can give.

“ In Billy's world, there were no bounderies, no walls, no if's but's or can't's. a world that he shared with us all. and i'm more than sure that who ever met billy, was going to remember him for a lifetime because he touched many peoples hearts. in the short period of time i knew billy, as a father-in-law i could not ask for a better husband to my daughter mimi. my daughter was blessed when she met billy. and billy was also blessed when he met mimi. these two souls were meant to be with each other. i also met billy's grandparents mr. and mrs. bearden, the most wonderfull people i've met and in their lovely home you could feel the warm and respectfull feelings that billy had for his grandparents. i learned quite a bit from billy on the way he handle his situation staying positive and facing pain without fear of what the next day would bring.He knew what it would bring, but he faced it with courage and determination.Because the billy we knew,after all, was one of a kind.....R.I.P. Billy

“ Babe, I love you so much. I keep going over all the events that transpired the night God decided to call you home. I wish I had more time with you. We had so many things still left on your bucket list. I really want to honor your memory. Still make you happy. Make sure you're ok. I'm at peace knowing that you and I loved each other to the very end and I will continue to love you till I die. We went through so much in the short time we were together and i wouldn't have it any other way. I have loved and supported you since the very beginning. You're are the strongest man I've ever met. Your fight with cancer was very hard on you mentally and physically. You gave it your all and still managed to laugh, joke and make the best of our situation. I love you for fighting to stay a little longer. You will be missed and I know we will be together again when my time comes. Save a seat for me and your puppies. Love you babe!
