“ A true friend is a person who will step in and defend you when you are no where around to defend yourself. Cheryl was just that kind of person.
Thank you Cheryl for stepping up and being a true friend.
My heart and prayers goes out to her family that she loved so very much.
God has excepted another dear and sweet soul.
May Peace come to you all,
Shirley Smith

“ I can't even find the words. My childhood memories are full of our family visits. How I wish we could go back if only for a moment. Our parents sitting around the table talking about who knows what and the kids running around without a care in the world. We will always and forever be cousins say hello to all our family who met you at heavens gate. Until we meet again love you!

“ To Ricky, my heartfelt condolences and prayers to you. Cheryl, you left way too soon. I miss you. The last time I saw you, we went out to eat barbecue. Millie came along and we all had a good time. Our childhood memories are many. Like the house on Chapman with the cement porch. We would water it down with the water hose and slide across it. I'm sure somebody fell, ouch. The house on Alber where we would play in your neighbors clubhouse, not caring about the signs "NO GIRLS ALLOWED ".We were just some goofy kids having fun. Thank you my dear loving cousin. I love you Cheryl, your cousin Paula
