

Cynthia Carol (Faust) Tucker

January 21, 1945 - January 17, 2021

Cynthia Carol (Faust) Tucker, a treasured wife, mother, sister, aunt and friend, died at home on January 17, 2021, after a three-year battle with lymphoma.

Cynthia was born in Ludlow, MA, to her parents Anna (Bobowiec) Faust (d: 2004) and Philius Faust (d: 1991). The family moved to Jacksonville, FL where Cynthia spent her childhood and graduated from Bishop Kenny High School.

Cynthia met and married her beloved husband of 45 years, James “Jim” Tucker (d: 2012), in Jacksonville. They and their infant daughter settled in Lilburn, GA in 1971.

She was an accomplished seamstress until her retirement in 2008. She enjoyed traveling with her family, participating in the sewing circle at her church, dining out, and laughing with friends and family.

Cynthia is survived by her daughter, Kristi Anne Tucker, of Lilburn, GA; her sister, Beverly Ann (Faust) Larizza of Ponte Vedra Beach, FL; and many cherished and loved in-laws, nieces, nephews, and extended family.

A Funeral Mass will be held at St. John Neumann Catholic Church, in Lilburn, on Monday, January 25 at 1:30 p.m. EST. The mass will also be live-streamed at <https://sjnlilburn.com/online-masses>. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to a local animal shelter or the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

Condolences may be sent or viewed at www.wagesfuneralhome.com. Tom M. Wages Funeral Service, a family company, 3705 Highway 78 West, Snellville, GA 30039 (770-979-3200) has been entrusted with the arrangements.

“ I wish had had the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Tucker, but I have no doubt she was an incredibly special woman, as she raised such a lovely, kind and thoughtful daughter. Kristi always, rightfully, put her mom first in her life. That is a testament to a family focused on love and always doing the right thing. May the coming days for your family be filled with just as much laughter as tears, as you remember all Mrs. Tucker contributed to the world.
