David Lee Anderson age 44 of Lawrenceville, GA, passed away peacefully Wednesday, March 9, 2022. Left to honor David and remember his love are spouse Diane; three children Katelynn (14), Tristin (13), and Sawyer (2); parents Thomas and Marie Anderson; siblings Laura Wagner and Benjamin Anderson (Jennifer Pratt); brothers-in-law Lance Wagner, Greg Baker and Yasha Renner; sister-in-law Denise Renner; nieces Reanna Wagner, Lydia and Veronica Renner; nephews Roland and Conrad Renner; in-laws Susan and Duane Case, and a host of other relatives.

Davy was born at Naval Medical Center Portsmouth in Virginia. He graduated from Lakeshore High School and earned an advanced certificate through the manufacturing and skilled trades program at Lake Michigan College. Dave worked as a CAD designer at Quality Mold & Engineering, Inc. (QME) in Baroda, Michigan for seven years before relocating South. Dave joined Sidel, Inc. in Norcross, Georgia to work in the mold shop and later transitioned to the PM Services group. For 19 years he poured his passion and expertise into developing packaging solutions used around the world.

Friends and family describe Dave as having a brilliant mind, tender heart, and a self-taught musician who loved playing guitar. He had the astounding ability to pick up an instrument and play a song by ear, despite never practicing it or learning from sheet music. Co-founder and guitarist for the rock band Five Out, Dave's raw talent and out-of-the-box thinking heavily influenced their debut album Pressure & Time.

David was a devoted husband and father. In his free time, he coached softball, enjoyed fishing with his son, organized many family trips, and had a blast each Fourth of July coordinating an elaborate firework show. Dave was well-known for having a sweet tooth, picking "what's for dinner" each night, and grilling the best brats and BBQ ribs. He really liked rewatching movies from his childhood and adored family traditions such as scoping out the best Christmas lights or picking out unique holiday gifts. His favorite gift to receive was a fresh new package of socks. David was an avid video gamer who kept up on the latest technology, and he also looked forward to a classic competitive game of chess.

Adjectives to characterize Dave by those who knew him most are goofy, creative, determined, opinionated, patriotic, independent, hard-working, passionate, intelligent, loyal, spiritual, and loving. David truly lived life his way. He had a strong belief in the creator, was inspired by the universe, and had a deep desire for people to realize how important peace and genuine humanity is needed for us to thrive. Dave was a beautiful soul who will always be loved, forever missed, and never forgotten.

Family, friends, and others whose lives David touched are invited to celebrate his life on Saturday, March 19 from 12:00 to 2:00 p.m. and/or join his memorial service from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made on behalf of David's three children and sent to his wife Diane Anderson at 665 Alcovy Forest Drive, Lawrenceville, GA 30045.

“ I will miss you my brother. I'm going to miss our conversations and music together too. May you Rest In Peace. Save a spot for me at the drums when I get to the other side. Love you brother.

“ A brilliant career that ended too soon. David was one of the best mold designers I have known and his future as a project manager was very promising. Why is it always the best who leave the earliest?
my deepest condolences to the family.

“ Very sad indeed. I hate to see him leave us so soon. I met David when he arrived in Atlanta and started working with us at Sidel. We both ride motorcycle at the time. That brought some interesting discussion. He will also play his demo tape at the office. That was fun. The quality of his work was outstanding. I will always stretch or push him to the limit with my "NOT" so standard project request or idea. However, over the years, we have worked together serving common customer accounts. We've learn to appreciate how to work together and use each other skills. I will really miss him as a person and as a college.

“ Dear David's loved ones,

I was a David's Chinese colleague. I lived in Shanghai which is thousands miles away.

I knew David at the beginning of my career in Sidel in 2004. We communicated very often in mails regarding technical things. At that time, i was almost a rookie in a very beginning mold shop in China while David had been mold designer for a few years in Sidel. He was one of our teachers indeed. He is very professional and patient person to explain something in very detail. Usually, his mail is much longer than others. While David's mail arrived, my teammate and me used to take longer time to learn technical things and American English. Over time, we learned much from him.

I met David physically in Atlanta in 2007. He looked very strong and drove a small car. He showed me interesting designs he was working on. We enjoyed them together. Sometimes, we had different opinions on design. But he was always smiling to me. His professional property impressed me much.

I didn't know what David think of me. I understood the big difference between us. Nevertheless, i benefited from his technical teaching, knowledge sharing in fact. I felt very sad and was shocked after hearing his passing away.

I wish him peace in heaven.

I offer my heartfelt condolence to you -his loved ones. God bless you!

“ I will surely miss you my neighbor, my friend, my brother. You were a cool guy and we shared some fun chats and quite a few cold beers and laughter. I will miss seeing you my man but God’s calling is much more important than my earthly needs for my friend here. I hope to have a beer with you in Heaven one day! 🙌 My deep condolences to Diane and the kiddos. Your pal next door, Ahmad.
