“ Dear Mike and FAMILY, please accept my deepest sympathy and God's mercy and blessing may be with YOU !! I was privileged to know Mr. Davis, the Godfather of FIDS, had an opportunity welcoming him and Mike here in Spokane during the worst winter ! I learned so many things about monitors/FIDS, airlines, airports , THANK YOU Mr. Davis for all your attentiveness and mentoring, rest in peace . Les Bohush

“ I have treasured the stories that Dave would share with me over the years of my friendship with the Davis family. Some were the stuff of James Bond and Mission Impossible films! There was never a shortage of incidents to recall from his blessed life, and many endeavors. He and Mike attended a show that I performed in Nashville in the early years of my solo career. I was so touched that night when he gave me a watch that he had owned through the years. I barely knew him at that point and was struck by his generosity. He gave me advice on purchasing an RV once: "Peter, you'd better get a notebook to keep in this vehicle, because you're going to have a lot of stories to tell". Boy was he right. Stories were central to his storied life. We are thankful for that life on this day. Peter, Patricia, Brendan and India

“ We remember David's smile, his bigger than life laugh, and his presence, which can leave one with the sense he is seeing something we might be missing. Y'all are family to me. I am with you all in spirit today. You are in my prayers and my heart.
Much love to you all, and heartfelt thanks for the life of David Davis.

“ Almost every day I think about the Davis family and the many memories and opportunities shared with them years ago. The work we did, the fun we had and friendship are all still a special part of who I am. One of my favorite phrases came from Dave... "some days are better than others" he would often say. For years, I've also used that phrase to help me along. Every time I do, I think about where it came from and who all is touched by its meaning. Ms. Ruby, Mike, Carol and Cathy, I know that you are sad and will certainly miss him. But today is one of those better days knowing that he will be taken care of in a variety of ways. While he is now resting, tomorrow he will join his old friends, some of whom he will thank for their help along the way. Many thanks to Dave! He will forever live within us. Thinking about you all...

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for your family's loss. May you be comforted by the outpouring of love surrounding you. Words cannot even begin to express my sorrow.

Stephanie Wright

"The sorrow of the faithful
Is not that of permanent loss,
But the tender sense of sadness
That comes in saying good-bye for now
To someone we love.
May today's sorrow give way
To the peace and
Comfort of God's love."
