“ Dear Betty ,Cary ,family and friends, I am saddened to hear the news of Greg's passing. I have known Greg for at least 30 years. Greg was a kind hearted, mild mannered, generous and sweet spirited fellow. He was a master marble, granite and tile Craftsman. I had the opportunity to see his beautiful work at the St Regis and Jerome hotels in Aspen. Greg was also an expert skier and helped teach me how to ski. I was a guest of Greg and Robin's out in Aspen too many times to count. They were gracious hosts, Fun friends and we all made a lot of very special memories together.

Once Greg and Robin divorced, Greg moved back home to take care of his mama. He waited on her hand and foot while eventually becoming a new night manager at the local Walmart .

He loved his brother and nephews tremendously and spoke of them often.

Greg was super excited about his new Rubicon. He joked about his new wife "Ruby". I am sorry he didn't have the opportunity to "ride her " very much. I am terribly sorry that he had a very rough last 6 or 7 months of his life.

Rest in peace dear friend.

Love ,Maria Gaudio, Zachary and Roman
