“ Larry and I worked at Gainesville Regional Utilities together. He ran the transformer shop and I worked at the power plant next door. We were sent together to New Jersey to attend a training school. I won't forget that trip. He was a sharp fellow and very professional.

“ Lawrence was a "big" Florida Gator fan. When I learned he would be moving to Chattanooga I called him. I told him now that you are there you will become a Tennessee Volunteer fan so I want you to learn to sing "Rocky Top". Of course I was chided for asking that. I told him I would give him time to learn it and one day I would call and listen to him sing it. I can't really say here what he said but I'll say that he said that's not going to happen. We always went back and forth with our college football gibes. It was a lot of fun.
I loved him.
