Music has always been a major part of her life, starting at an early age in school and Church. She competed in numerous vocal competitions. Her love for music didn't stop there. She started and directed in 1967 a singing group of mothers from Holmes School in New Britain, CT who were called Do Re Mommies. She was also Choir Director at various Catholic Churches throughout her life. When she moved back to GA, she joined with our Dad in a senior music group Hi-Lo's.

“ Dear Debbie, Kevin, Colleen, Tommy, Russel and David,
I read about your Mom in the Herald. I was very sorry to hear about her. Your entire family was a big part of me and my family's life growing up. I remember your Mom and the Do Re Mommies when I was in 4th grade singing at Holmes School. I grew up with your father in Little League. And all of you grew up with me and my brothers and sister all the way thru high school. You have a great family and we had a lot of nice memories. It feels like yesterday although I myself recently turned 60! You guys are lucky you had your Mom for so long. Your memories will help you get thru this. I hope you guys are all close because there really is nothing more important than family. Take care of yourselves.

Love,
Danny St Laurent
