“ Danny, this really is so gut wrenching. I miss talking to her, she was so good to me, my children and grandchildren. Her and her brother Gary always made me feel so special. When I would march in the parades, they were sure to make their presence known. She is free of pain, hopefully your pain, and ours, will turn into everlasting memories that will bring joy in our hearts and smiles on our faces. We love you, take care of yourself, she will always be with you.

RIP Missy, I love you!

“ Dear Missy, We go way back together as friends at at Riverdale High School where we graduated in 1971. After meeting my brother, Danny, you both knew you were meant to be so y'all married on November 10, 1973. You spent your last anniversary of 47 years before passing together that will always be special to you both. My brother, Danny lost his one and only and I lost my sister in law which was heartbreaking. I will be forever grateful that you called me to say good bye and we talked about seeing one another again in the after life. We laughed over a memory of a Neil Diamond concert that you, danny, me and Terry went to see in Baton Rouge. It was good to hear your laugh and voice that one last time. Our last conversation and tears and a laugh will always be a special memory from you to me. I'm so sad you are gone way too soon but I know you are not suffering any longer as you were quite ill. You are in the Lord's hands now in peace with your loved ones gone before you. You were always loved and will be forever missed. Rest In Peace, Missy.

Love, Vicki

PS: I'll tell Bruno you loved him. You always did tell me how much you thought of him.

Thank you, I love him too.

Danny, I hope and pray your heart heals soon and that memories of Missy will bring a smile to your face instead of tears of sorrow. Love you, Vicki “ Missy, I can't believe I am writing on your memory page But I will never forget how kind you were to Terry - you made him feel so loved and welcome when we thought we were moving to Atlanta. We think we have a thousand tomorrow's and I wish I had one more to tell you goodbye and tell you how much we loved you. May you find comfort in the arms of the angels and until we meet again - God bless and when I see my favorite red cardinal I will know you are near - we will look out for Danny and offer our love I know this is so hard for him. Lots of love, Terry and Jamie

“ Danny we are so sorry for your loss and we will always be here for you. Missy left us too soon but now she is rejoicing in the arms of Jesus - no more pain and no more suffering I will never forget how kind you were to Terry when we were thinking of moving to Atlanta. You welcomed him into your home and made him feel so loved. We always think we have a thousand tomorrow's and I wish we had one more tomorrow to tell you how much we loved you and one day we will be reunited with our family and friends who went before us. God bless you sweet Missy. Rest In Peace Terry, Jamie, John Allen, Katrina, Leigh Anne, Vincent and Justin

“ I was enchanted by Missy. She was beautiful, with beautiful eyes and hair, and she was so much fun to be with, and she loved my cousin Danny. I thought they were perfect together, perfect for each other. They had a long and happy marriage. I remember when Danny would do something she didn't like, she would "tell" on him to his mother, my Aunt Peggy. I would listen to her and laugh my head off when Aunt Peggy would take Missy's side, even if she didn't really mean it. Poor Danny couldn't win! We would all laugh! For me, Missy will always be young and she will always be beautiful, and the world will be a sadder place without her in it, but she is no longer sick and in pain. I will always love and miss you, and my heart will always hurt for my cousin Danny losing the love of his life. I love you, Danny, and I am praying for both of you. Pam Bordelon Cook
