

Sarah Frances Duvall

August 20, 1929 - October 25, 2020

Sarah Frances Duvall, age 91, of Lawrenceville passed away October 25, 2020. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ernest Thomas Day, and Flora Mae Whitley. Daughter, Sonya Duvall. She was survived by her loving husband of 72 years, Arthur Duvall Jr. Her son, Steven Duvall. Her 4 grandkids Candice Hood, Christina Carlan, Courtney Hansen, and Cecilia Carlan. As well as 9 Great Grandkids, Douglas Hood, Ashlyn Hardigree, Chelsea Spivey, Alexis Trusty, Sarah Trusty, Kenny Adams, James and Charles Hansen, and Jason Lindsey, and also by her 4 great great grandkids, Caroline and Chandler Spivey, and Axle and Skyler Hood. Sarah was born and raised in Monroe, Ga, and graduated from Monroe high school.

Sarah worked as a clerk at Sears Roebuck and Eastman Kodak until she retired. After retirement Arthur and Sarah were fortunate enough to be able to buy a second home in Panama City Beach Florida. She loved taking her grandkids to the ebro dog races and to the beach.

Sarah was known as "Mema" to all 17 of her grands, greats, and great great grandkids. She loved her family and dedicated her life to them. All of us are forever grateful that God blessed us with her life for so many years. Mema was the most caring, understanding, thoughtful, selfless, kind, loving and patient woman we have ever known. She taught us how to work hard, earn money as well as save money. She was the biggest example of what it means to be a wife, mother, sibling, grandmother, friend and homemaker. She is a woman we have always loved and adored and we will forever strive to be more like her for the rest of our days. She taught us morals, how to have grace, respect, and how to be humble. She even taught us how to play basketball and football. Our 19 lives would be forever different if God hadn't blessed us with such a phenomenal woman.
