

Todd A. Peck

March 7, 1974 - September 1, 2021

Todd Andrew Peck, passed away in his sleep on Wednesday, September 1, 2021. He was 47 years old. A well-known presence in the Midtown Atlanta area, Todd was a talented bartender who worked at several of the most popular bars in the city. Todd was a “people person” and loved his job, where he was able to interact with so many different people from different walks of life. He was easy to talk to and was known to be someone who would lend an ear as well as pour a great drink. Todd was an avid hiker and loved the outdoors, having hiked in Death Valley and Glacier National Park. He found peace in the woods and went there to reconnect to nature. He adored writing, listening to music, and was passionate about movies. Todd grew up in Genesee, Wisconsin and Snellville, Georgia, graduating from South Gwinnett High School in 1992, where he was not only an exemplary student but a talented actor and musician. He is remembered fondly by so many after all these years.

Todd was predeceased by his grandparents, Lynwood and Eva Peck and Francis and Beatrice Macaulay. Todd is survived by his mother, Judy Martin and her husband Arthur; his father, Kenneth Peck and his wife Barbara; his brother, Scott Peck and his wife Kimberly; his nephews, Andrew and Zachary Peck; his niece, Ali Pizzo and her husband David, and their children Anna, Eli, and Kaylence. Todd is survived by many cousins. Todd is also survived by his partner, Craig Van Trees; and his beloved cat, Satchmo. Family was very important to Todd, and he was a devoted son, brother, partner, uncle, and great-uncle. Finally, Todd is survived by the friends he left behind, who miss him deeply.

Todd never met a stranger and was a fierce and loyal friend, who always had a big smile and bright eyes to welcome anyone who crossed his path. He had the ability to make anyone he came in contact with feel like the most important person in the world, His quick wit and sharp sarcasm could bring a smile to the hurting soul. His incredible friends have rallied around his beloved family with sympathy and care during this painful loss.
